Looking to the Future

2018-2022 strategy concluded:
- 5 years of work
- 14 strategy elements

2023-2027 strategy developed:
- 100+ contributors
- 13+ workstreams

Single barcode aspirational goal:
- Reduce multiple barcodes by focusing on 4 specific use cases

Annual UDI reporting to the US FDA:
- Engagement of 100+ GS1 Member Organisations

Clinical trials:
- Monthly meetings, annual implementation survey and a new case study

Major GS1 Healthcare accomplishments 2022
Major GS1 Healthcare accomplishments 2022

- 37th GS1 Healthcare Conference – hybrid: 700+ attendees, 86 countries and 10 sponsors
- World Patient Safety Day: Joint social media campaign with ISQUA, IHF, EAHP, EHMA
- 22-23 GS1 Healthcare Reference Book: 15 new cases studies from 12 countries
- GS1 Healthcare Provider webinars: 6 webinars, more than 600 viewers
- Working with the LATAM Region: 8 webinars, participated remotely in two local national conferences
- GS1 Healthcare social media landscape: New social media visual identity, over 1020 followers
- GS1 Healthcare social media landscape: New social media visual identity, over 1020 followers
- GS1 Healthcare social media landscape: New social media visual identity, over 1020 followers
- GS1 Healthcare social media landscape: New social media visual identity, over 1020 followers
- GS1 Healthcare social media landscape: New social media visual identity, over 1020 followers
- GS1 Healthcare social media landscape: New social media visual identity, over 1020 followers

Looking to the Future
- Public Policy
- Partnership & Collaboration

Engaging Our Community
- Data, Systems & Technology
- Collaborating for Success
- Africa & Development Partners
Looking-To-The-Future

Engaging Our Community

Data, Systems & Technology

Collaborating for Success

Public Policy

Partnership & Collaboration

Africa & Development Partners

Major GS1 Healthcare accomplishments 2022

- Traceability and Verification System (TRVST): Launched in August 2022, leverages key GS1 standards, live in Nigeria and Rwanda.

- Nigeria: Two draft guidelines in alignment with GS1 standards.

- Rwanda: Published a regulation and two guidelines related to identification, labelling and data sharing in August 2022.

- Francophone Africa GS1 Healthcare Summit: Co-organised by USAID and GS1 Healthcare, 240 government representatives from 22 countries.

The Global Language of Business
Major GS1 Healthcare accomplishments 2022

- Looking to the Future
- Engaging Our Community
- Data, Systems & Technology
- Africa & Development Partners
- Partnership & Collaboration
- Public Policy Partnership & Collaboration

RFID in healthcare
- Work group launched: Role of GS1 standards in RFID implementations across healthcare

GS1 Registry Platform
- Validated systems requirements assessment completed: Trained 222 staff from 59 MOs, created eAcademy training module

GDSN Deep Dive
- 12-point improvement in customer satisfaction from prior year

Increased focus on health informatics
- 2 sessions during the Paris GS1 Healthcare conference

GS1
Major GS1 Healthcare accomplishments 2022

- GS1 Board Committee for Healthcare: Designed to further elevate the work of GS1 Healthcare
- GS1 Clinical Transformation Committee: Refocused Clinical Advisory Committee launched
- 2022/2023 GS1 Healthcare Leadership team elected
- GS1 Healthcare sustainability initiative: Under Development
- GS1 Healthcare community: 7 new global members including one healthcare provider
- LOOKING TO THE FUTURE
- ENGAGING OUR COMMUNITY
- DATA, SYSTEMS & TECHNOLOGY
- COLLABORATING FOR SUCCESS
- PUBLIC POLICY
- PARTNERSHIP & COLLABORATION
Major GS1 Healthcare accomplishments 2022

Looking to the Future
- Engaging our Community
  - Data, Systems & Technology
  - Collaborating for Success
  - Public Policy
  - Partnerships & Collaboration

- Joint Initiative Council: 2 JIC Open Forum sessions
- ICCBBA: Renewed Memorandum of Understanding between GS1 and ICCBBA
- Sustainable medicines partnership: MOU signed. GS1 Healthcare's first step to work in sustainability
- Working groups: Continued participation in JIC, HL7 and ISO

Africa & Development Partners