Tuesday 15 November 2022

8:30-9:00 — Welcome - Morning coffee

9:00-10:00 — Parallel breakout sessions

Session 1 : Le rôle des standards GS1 dans le secteur de la Santé (French speaking session)

Session 2: The role of the GS1 Standards in Healthcare (English speaking session)

10:00-11:00 — Opening plenary

Delivering powerful clinical outcomes globally

Speakers: Renaud de Barbuat, President & CEO, GS1 Global Office (Belgium) • Didier Veloso, CEO, GS1 France (France) • Géraldine Lissalde-Bonnet, Vice President Healthcare, GS1 Global Office (Belgium)

Session Chair: Dr. Susan Moffatt-Bruce, M.D., PhD, MBA, FACS, FRCSC, CEO, Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons (Canada)

11:00-11:30 — Networking break

11:30-12:45 — Plenary session

Essential vaccine traceability

Session chair: Greg Reh, Global Life Sciences and Healthcare Leader, Deloitte (United States)

12:45-13:00 — Introduction to local conference charity

13:00-14:00 — Lunch break

Tuesday 15 November 2022

AFTERNOON SESSIONS

14.00-15.00 Parallel breakout sessions

Why product master data is essential for patient safety

Session Chair: Marc van den Camp, Product Master Data Domain Owner, Medtronic (The Netherlands)

Session 2: Public Policy Global Traceability for Pharmaceutical Products

Session Chair: Cyndi Poetker, Director Enterprise Standards and Traceability, Abbott Laboratories (United States)

15.00-16.00 Plenary Session

What can GS1 standards bring to Clinical Trials?

Session Chair: Pierre Fernandez-Barbereau, R&D Clinical Supply Chain Operations, Industrial Development, Sanofi (France)

16.00-16.30 Networking break

16.30-17.30 Plenary Session

What scanning a barcode at point of care really means!

Session Chair: Dr. Pascal Bonnabry, Head of Pharmacy, University Hospital of Geneva (Switzerland)

Wednesday 16 November 2022

8:30-9:00 · Welcome - Morning coffee

9:00-10:00 · Parallel breakout sessions

Session 1: Understanding the role of standards for digital interoperability

Session 2: Achieving cost reduction in healthcare with improved outcomes

10:00-11:00 · Plenary Session

Scanning the medical product barcode to access product information online

Session Chair: Dr. Pius Waldmeier, Head of Global Roche Anti-Counterfeit & Patient Safety, F. Hoffmann-La Roche (Switzerland)

11:00-11:30 · Networking break

11:30-13:00 · Plenary session

Important updates from around the world

Session chair: Cyndi Poetker, Director Standards, Traceability & SCM, Abbott Laboratories (United States)

13:00-14:00 · Lunch break

Wednesday 16 November 2022

AFTERNOON SESSIONS

14.00-15.00 Parallel breakout sessions

Driving supply chain digital transformation in emerging markets

Session Chair: Dr. Ramy Guirguis, Senior Information Technology Advisor, USAID (United States)

Session 2: Interconnecting digital healthcare solutions

Session Chair: Garry McAllister, Chief Technology Officer, OneLondon - NHS (United Kingdom)

15.00-16.00 Plenary Session

Preventing falsified medicines through secure traceability

Session Chair: Peter de Jong, Chairman of the Board, Brocacef Groep NV (The Nederlands)

16.00-16.30 Networking break

16.30-17.30 Plenary Session

Efficient hospital logistics to deliver better patient outcomes

Session Chair: Sotirios Tsiafos-Tsiaras, Military Pharmacis, 401 Athens General Military Hospital / Hellenic Army (Greece)

As of 19.30 Networking dinner

GS1 France invites conference delegates to a secret location which will transport you back to a bygone era. A magical place, full of memories of traditional pastimes and performing arts.

Thursday 17 November 2022

MORNING SESSIONS

8:30-9:00 Welcome - Morning coffee

9:00-10:00 Parallel breakout sessions

Session 1: Clinical Trials - Practical lessons for implementers

Session Chair: Hans von Steiger, Director / Team Leader Clinical Supply Chain Strategy Management, Pfizer (United States)

Session 2: Achieving supply chain efficiency through innovation

Session Chair: Lindabeth Doby, Senior Digital Supply Chain Advisor, USAID (United States)

10:00-11:00 Plenary Session

What are the benefits of unique device identification?

Session Chair: Jay Crowley, VP Medical Devices and UDI Practice Lead, USDM Life Sciences (United States)

11:00-11:30 Networking break

11.30-12.30 Plenary session

Why Clinical Systems Adoption of GS1 standards is essential?

Session chair: Sir Terence Stephenson, Chair of the Health Research Authority, Nuffield Professor, Institute of Child Health, University College London Consultant Paediatrician UCLH & Great Ormond Street Hospital, London (United Kingdom)

12.30-14.00 Lunch break

Thursday 17 November 2022

AFTERNOON SESSIONS

14.00-15.00 | Parallel breakout sessions

Public Policy medical device regulatory session

Session Chair: Dennis Black, UDI Program Director, Global Regulatory Affairs, BD (United States)

Session 2: Standards supporting environmental sustainability in healthcare

Session Chair: Nazneen Rahman, CEO, Sustainable Medicines Partnership (United Kingdom)

15.00-16.00 | Plenary Session

Leaders in GS1 standards implementation share their experiences

Session Chair: Gordana Kalan Živčec, Medical and Personal Coach to Athletes, Leaders and Executives, Master Doctor Health Practice (Slovenia)

16.00-16.30 | Networking break

16.30-17.30 | Closing Plenary

What we can achieve together

Official welcome to the GS1 Healthcare Conference 2023

Session Chair: Ronald Lavater, CEO, International Hospital Federation (Switzerland)